I Did Not Die

*Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there; I did not die.*

Obituary

She Believed

This is my creed, to be at set of sun! When the last light of the day is put to rest, contented with the things that I have done - And to know, deep in my heart, I've done my best!

On April 7, 1976, Andrea Eileen Morris was born to George and Marilyn of Chicago, Illinois. At an early age she accepted Christ and became a member of the Revival Center Church under the Pastorage of her grandfather, the late Rev. Jason T. Smith.

Andrea graduated from Neal F. Simeon High School June, 1984, and enrolled in the Robert Morris College, pursuing her interest in Social Work, until she became ill.

With strong religious convictions instilled in her by her grandmother, the late Mollie Ann Smith, Andrea was baptized and recently she reaffirmed her faith in God. Because of this commitment, she was able to undertake the ordeal of a successful heart transplant on November 13, 1994.

A sense of humor, dry wit, patience and love of children were just a few of Andrea's many attributes. She loved babysitting and serving on the Hospitality Board at the Revival Center Church. She carried out her duties to God and to her church during the last nine months with courage and steadfast, determination to overcome life's difficulties. With a smile and a testimony to praise, Andrea was able to witness to others.

On Sunday, August 20, 1995, she reentered the Evanston Memorial Hospital, unknowingly, for the last time and was called home to rest on Thursday, August 24, 1995, at 11:25 A.M.

Left to cherish her fond memories are, her mother, Marilyn Patterson; her father, George Morris; her step-father, Lawrence Patterson; two sisters: Laura Christina and Renee Eileen; grandparents: Gerald Best and Yvonne Best; many aunts, uncles, cousins, a host of other relatives and friends including her very special friend, Dasean Hillsmen.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

"Death is just a natural thing, like the closing of a door. As we start upon a journey to a new and distant shore. So let your grief be softened and yield not to despair. You have only placed your loved one, in the loving Father's care."
