

PALLBEARERS

Family And Friends

"THE VICTORY HAS BEEN WON"

Don't cry for me I'm alright now I'm resting in my heavenly home, and though I'll miss you until we meet again, I know that it won't be long.

While in my earthly life, I had a battle to fight and I fought it until the very end, and now I know with blessed assurance that when you trust in God, you're sure to win.

*I know you love me, but God loved me
best so as for my homegoing, don't question why, Just know that I'm free from all sickness and pain, and I'll see you in this mansion here on high!*

Obituary

JULIA DANIELS, was born February 23, 1921 in Coila, Mississippi to the parents of Asbury and Mary Day.

Julia confessed a hope in Christ at an early age. She later joined the Revival Center Church of God In Christ at 858 W. 87th Street, in Chicago, Illinois; under the pastorship of Mildred L. Grant in 1988, where she was a member until the Lord called her home.

Julia departed this life Thursday morning April 9, 1992 at Little Company of Mary Hospital.

She leaves to mourn her homegoing, her husband, Willie Daniels; her daughter, Irene Brownlee; six grandchildren, one sister, Alice Keys and a host of other relatives and friends.

*"I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith....
There is laid up for me a crown of righteousness...."*

II Timothy 4:7-8
